FGG BEST IN SHOW

Special rule for Best in Show class – the Grand Champion Buck, Doe, and Wether are eligible for the Best in Show class. In order to allow wethers to compete against bucks and does, reproduction systems are not to be considered while judging the Best in Show class. All three genders have an equal chance of winning.

Fun Classes (Friday, June 8th and Saturday, June 9th)

Friday, June 8, 2018

Best Dam and Daughter Class

Dams and 1 Daughter are judged together. Different exhibitors may team together to create a dam and daughter pair. However, there is only 1 winner; the Breeder of the pair. If the Breeder is not present at the show, then the owner of the pair will be the winner. If the pair was created by a team of exhibitors, the owner of the dam will be the winner.

Best Trio Class

3 goats judged as a trio bred by the same Breeder. Different exhibitors may team together to create the trio. However, there is only 1 winner; the Breeder of the pair. If the Breeder is not present at the show, then the owner of the trio will be the winner. If the trio was created by a team of 2 exhibitors, the owner of the majority of the goats will be the winner. If the trio was created by a team of 3 exhibitors, the exhibitors can duke it out amongst themselves to determine who the will be the winner.
